Show success

The Rylstone Kandos Show attracted another big crowd this year and though numbers were slightly down on last year's record gate, takings were still around $15,000 – a satisfactory figure for the local show society. This year's pavilion was again a highlight of the show with some fabulous exhibits on display. Some sections including horticulture and farm produce were down because of the hot and dry season but wool exhibits were up in both quantity and quality. As usual there were plenty of stalls to browse through in the grounds and a number local organisations promoted their groups and fostered community support. Sculptures on the Hill attracted plenty of onlookers to view the interesting art works with Ludwig Mlcek's "Principium" taking out the People's Choice award.

In the ring, horses were a wonderful attraction as always and later in the day the popular woodchop was keenly contested. The Young Farmers Challenge was a hit with the crowd with competition open to all age groups. Later, children competed in a gumbot throwing competition and a group tug-o-war. The Junior Showgirl competition was another popular event. High School Students from across NSW also participated in the Junior Show Judging, gaining valuable experience in critiquing cattle and sheep.

A first for many spectators was a demonstration Polo Match featuring some of the best Polo players in Australia. Commentator, Jim Gunn did an excellent running commentary throughout the match, guiding spectators through a full hour of very clever horse and rider athleticism. The Dog Jumping Competition drew a strong crowd as onlookers cheered on Lilly and Strong who battled it out for top dog. The competition ended in a tie with a height just short of seven feet – an impressive effort. Dogs also played an important role in the Championship Dog Show, with some really beautiful breeds on display and again in The Yard Dog Trials at Sammy's Flat. The show closed with the usual fireworks display which drew plenty of oohs and ahhs from the crowd. From the Committee, a big thank you to all the sponsors, stewards, members and supporters for their help and support at this year's show.

Horse events are an integral part of the local show. This year there were some beautiful horses on the ground along with some very competitive riders.

Winner of this year's Sculpture on the Hill - Principium (A source of life) in wood and steel by Ludwig Mlcek.

Cementa17

After two hugely successful festival events, Cementa is back this year offering an entirely free four-day showcase of independent and experimental arts spread across the town of Kandos from Thursday, April 6 to Sunday, April 9. Cementa17 will present the work of more than 60 artists at the vanguard of Australia's creative community and artist collectives, showcasing work from Tony Albert, Mervyn Bishop, Claire Healy and Sean Cordeiro, Teena McCarthy, Nicole Welsh, Miriam Williamson, John A Douglas, The Twilight Girls, Super Critical Mass, A Galaxy of Suns, Artbank and a lot more.

Since its debut in 2013, Cementa has grown to become a popular destination event with a total focus on arts, community and the land. Building on the success of the previous two festivals, Cementa celebrates the state of Australian contemporary art across the spectrum of practice, from emerging to established, from urban to regional to local. Cementa17 will present four days and nights of performance, sound, cabaret, interactive and electronic arts, video, installation and ceramics presented at more than twenty venues in and around Kandos and its surrounds - shopfronts, cafes, on the streets, in the local museum and nursery, at parks, garages, cars, backyards, the tennis courts, the golf club, community halls, church yards, and surprising and unexpected places.

Cementa17 is a celebration of contemporary art in Australia and of the small town that hosts it - developed and fostered by three creative directors who live and work in the region - Ann Finegan, Christine McMillan and Alex Wisser. For further information go to www.cementa.com.au | info@cementa.com.au and follow Cementa: @cementafestival #cementa #cementa17 #kandos.

The creative directors of Cementa17 Christine McMillan, Alex Wisser and Ann Finegan wish everyone a creative, enjoyable and interesting contemporary arts festival.

Seniors recognised

Kandos and Rylstone seniors enjoyed two very entertaining luncheons in March during Senior's Week celebrations. In Kandos, over 70 people gathered at the Kandos Returned Services Community Club where music and laughter filled the hall as local band Bush Rock entertained the crowd. Following a delicious lunch, Mid-Western Regional Council's Seniors Week Planning Committee Chairperson, Esme Martens, presented the 2017 Kandos Senior Citizen of the Year Award to Clandulla resident, Keith Smith. Since 1976 Keith has been active in Community affairs at Clandulla volunteering on many community projects and attending many meetings and functions. He is currently the Clandulla Fire Brigade's treasurer and captain, attending many fires, traffic accidents and training. He was awarded the National Fire Medal 1st clasp (at least 15 years' service) and long service medals 1st and 2nd clasps while serving on the Clandulla Brigade. He was a member of the Kandos Centenary Committee in 2014 and assisted with cemetery tours conducted by various committee members. Keith is very community minded and attends Village Forums arranged by Council and regularly assists elderly community members with their daily lives. President of the Kandos Superannuants and Pensioners Association, Delma Smith congratulated Keith and thanked all the sponsors and organisers for making the day such a delightful event.

In Rylstone, around 50 people attended the luncheon at the Rylstone Club where they were entertained by Bushrock and Rylstone Public School students from kinder and years 1 and 2. Following a terrific lunch Cr Esme Martens presented this year's Rylstone Senior Citizen of the Year Award to Robin Johnston. Robin has been an active member of the Rylstone CPSA since 2001 holding the positions of secretary and treasurer. Her involvement in the Rylstone Hospital Auxiliary has helped raise considerable funds for the purchase of important medical equipment through her willingness to volunteer at various events, which has resulted in financial contributions from those organisations to the auxiliary. She has been a member of the Rylstone CWA for six years where she is currently president, and has helped at the Cancer Council's Daffodil Days and Biggest Morning Teas. Robin has been a member and strong supporter of the Rylstone Kandos Show for over 40 years in roles such as Chief Produce Steward and helping to provide visiting judges and the Ring Master with lunch and refreshments. Robin has always demonstrated a commitment to the community and her work in many groups and organisations make her a very worthwhile Senior Citizen of the Year.

During the afternoon, Brent Barlow and Terry and Maureen Blackburn were presented with Certificates of Appreciation by Esme Martens on behalf of the Rylstone CPSA. Brent for his outstanding and lasting contribution in reporting for the local branch and Terry and Maureen for their outstanding and lasting years of service in transporting the seniors of our community. President of the Rylstone CPSA, Carolyn Norris congratulated Robin on her award and thanked Bushrock and Rylstone Public School students for entertaining everyone. She also thanked the sponsors and organisers for the wonderful day.

Quilt Show

The Bogue Crafters will be holding their second Quilt Show and Sale at the Rylstone Memorial Hall over Easter from Sunday, April 16 through to Thursday, April 20. The Bogue Crafters is a group of local friends who have been meeting for over 15 years and share a passion for traditional, modern and original patchwork and quilting as well as other varieties of creative stitching and knitting.

Following on from the success of their first exhibition in 2015, the group is once more hoping to attract like-minded quilters and patch-workers and would like to invite both locals and tourists to the area to call in and enjoy their show. All quilts in the exhibition will be for sale and will range from mini-quilts and wall-hangings to queen-sized bed quilts and covers. Other beautifully hand-stitched items and knitting will also be for sale. A raffle will be held, providing those who attend the show the opportunity to be in the draw to win a beautiful queen-sized bed quilt designed and made by the Bogue Crafters.

The official opening of the exhibition is from 5.30pm to 7pm on Saturday, April 15. Everyone is welcome to attend both the opening and the show, with free admission to both. The show will be open from 10am until 4pm daily. For more information or enquiries, email glenerinl@gmail.com or check out <https://bogeecrafters.weebly.com>. Come and see what the Bogue Crafters have been up to.

Ferntree fundraiser

The Ferntree Gully Reserve Trust (FTGT) is holding its annual bush croquet fundraiser and contest for the Ted Daniels Trophy on Sunday May 7. The venue is located at the top of Growee Gulph on the Bylong Valley Way, approximately 20 kms from Rylstone. The area will be well sign posted on the day. Come along for a great family day out. Bring a picnic lunch (barbecue facilities and campfire provided) and enjoy the scenery. Cost to play is $10 per adult, and the first heats start at 10am.

Bush croquet is as much a spectator sport as a fun game to play. Hoops are placed in holes in tree stumps, around wombat burrows, over fallen trees, and elsewhere, so there is as much luck as skill in winning.

There will be a raffle for a ute-load of prime yellow box firewood cut to 300 mls length with free delivery (around the local region only). Raffle tickets are available from the Rylstone Friendly Grocer and other outlets during April leading up to May 7 when the raffle will be drawn at the end of the tournament. Proceeds will go towards the ongoing care and maintenance of the Reserve's walking tracks, lookouts, signage, entrance road and general infrastructure. The FTGT, appointed by the Department of Crown Lands, is composed of a small number of volunteers, who look after the 2,100 hectares. Emphasis is on the educational and environmental aspects of this unique area. For enquiries, contact the Trust Secretary, Sue Pridmore on 6379 1184 or the Rylstone Friendly Grocer, Louee Street, Rylstone.

Meals on Wheels

Rylstone Kandos District Meals on Wheels (RKMOW) supplies frozen meals to anyone who is frail, aged or a younger person with a disability and their Carers. You can contact RKMOW on 6379 1519 or call into the office at HealthOne Ilford Road, Rylstone. Office hours are Monday to Thursday - 9am to 4pm and Friday - 9am to 1pm.

Ceramic Fun

Debbie Stone will be hosting Ceramica again during Cementa from April 6 to 9. Call into her studio at 15 Arber Street, Clandulla for four days of ceramic fun, where she will be displaying work of local artists and inviting all to put their hands in clay. There'll be a prize of $50 for the best small sculpture to be judged on the last day of the event. Directions can be found in the Cementa program.

Cementa's tiny people

Real life 3D models are becoming all the rage for weddings and special occasions in Sydney thanks to new technology. In a Kandos shopfront window, passers-by may catch a glance of some of these curious novelties during Cementa17, where small hand-painted models of Kandos district locals are shown, waiting to be sold as collectable souvenirs to visitors and locals alike. The artist involved in creating this unusual display, Andrew Christie arranged for four local people to travel to Sydney to begin the 3D process.

"These public figures are representative of the Kandos community as the town redefines itself following the closure of the historic cement works. Whether it's Brent Barlow, descendant of a second-fleeter Mudgee newspaper family, local educators and artists Kat and Darryl Brown, or innovative farmer Stuart Andrews of Natural Sequence Farming, you can support this small town by taking a unique part of Kandos home with you."

Marco Saleh who is the General Manager of Sentimental 3D Studios in Alexandria where

CV Landcare outings

Capertee Valley Landcare are meeting at Dunns Swamp 'Ganguddy' at 9am (at the ramp) on Saturday April 1 for an interesting day of kayaking and walking. You can bring your own kayak or hire one. Just let Julie Gibson from CV Landcare know if you're coming and she'll book a kayak for you. You can phone her on 6379 7317, or you can contact John or Cindy from Southern Cross kayaking on 0439 936 480. After kayaking, the group will have an early lunch followed by an easy walk to the dam wall on the Weir Walk, then Long Cave Circuit walk which is 4.5 Kilometres and has some moderate to steep steps. It has beautiful views up the waterway (expect two hours for this). You do not need to be a CV Landcare member for this April 1st day however, if you can't make the April 1st event and wish to participate in more adventures, you'll need to be a member of CV Landcare for the following events: Sunday, May 21 - Airlly Village along the tramway track, and Sunday, July 2 - Genowlan Mountain, the mine and/or the grotto (quite steep). If you wish to join the Capertee Valley Landcare group please call Julie Gibson on 6379 7317 or come along to their meetings held at the Glen Alice Hall on the last Friday of each month.

the process began, explained how it works. "We make real life 3D printed models of people and their loved ones for everlasting memories of life's incredible moments. Photos are taken inside a 3D photo booth that has 89 cameras, 29 projectors and 16 light strips. The camera is able to take about 180 photos at one time from every angle, and the data is then entered in to 3D modelling software. The figurines are made using a 3D printer that binds together gypsum powder in layers that are just one tenth of a millimeter thick."

Mr Saleh said families and couples have jumped on board the idea to create figurines and many people are doing it in place of family portraits as a keepsake. The figurines are available in sizes from 7.5cm to 22.5cm high, and the bigger you go the clearer the resemblance.

Holding yourself and your family in the palm of your hand is now a possibility thanks to 3D printing.

KHS golf win

The Kandos High School golf team of Jack Nassis, Nick Bucan, Kevin and Thomas Large and Oden Osgood played in this year's Western Golf Championships at Cowra Golf Club on Monday, March 13. The boys teed off in the worst possible conditions with torrential rain and howling winds continuing throughout the entire round. After battling away all day they did their school proud turning in some fantastic results. Jack Nassis carved out a wonderful round to win by five strokes making him Western Region Schoolboys Champion and going one better than his runner-up effort last year. Thomas Large snared Runner-Up in Junior Boys and Overall Handicap, with what was also an excellent round under the conditions. A big thank you to Kevin Lloyd and Papa Osgood for the transport and the walk/support in the rain and wind. Well done boys and let's hope for better weather next year.

Good charity

The Community Charity Shop in Kandos has once again opened its heart to help others by delivering $2000 of food during the recent fire appeal to the community ravaged by fire in the Dunedoo-Leadville area. Knowing how devastating the fire was to families who had lost homes and possessions, charity shop volunteers quickly arranged for two pallet loads of food from IGA Kandos to be delivered to Dunedoo. It was a welcome gift and one that won't be forgotten. This now brings the total of money given to needy groups or individuals across the region to $178,253 since they started in 2013 - an impressive amount.

The Charity Shop recently announced that they're moving and will relocate to Jackson's old store, a bit further down the street near the newsagency. They're looking forward to the move, but know they've got a lot of work ahead of them. To help alleviate the workload they've started a half-price sale and encourage everyone to call in for a browse.

Happy show goers

Rylstone District Environment Society raised $418.05 at the Rylstone Kandos Show this year through their raffle proceeds plus donations. Winner of the raffle was Sue Pridmore who generously declined the prize and another ticket was drawn. This time the winner was Daniel from Faulconbridge who was thrilled. He and Tahni were at the show for the day with their prize winning Boston terrier pup. They had never been to Rylstone before and they were very excited and happy with their experience.

Galloping Gumnuts

Galloping Gumnuts is a travelling early childhood program, aimed to support social and educational experiences for children and their families who live in rural and remote areas. It provides a variety of indoor and outdoor activities that cater for all developmental stages of a child. Activities include art sessions, puzzles, book reading, climbing activities, ball skills, balancing, sand and water play and much more. Parents are encouraged to participate in the activities with their children, and early educators are there to guide directed individual play and group activities. Galloping Gumnuts meets every 2nd Thursday, 9.30am -12pm, at the Ilford Community Hall. Their next meeting date is April 13. Enrolment costs only $3 per year and $3 per session.
